Curious & CULTURED

Featured Mural Park Artist Annelise Vuono, with her mural titled "Hope."

York County, Pennsylvania, is a haven for the curious and cultured traveler with new discoveries to be made around every corner.

A treasure trove of creativity — from painting to pottery, murals to music, York County's cultural community is thriving.

Explore vibrant art galleries and studios, including the York Art Association, HIVE artspace, and Marketview Arts to immerse yourself in a celebration of local artists' work.

You'll also find amazing art on display throughout the county including Mural Park. Located in the Royal Square District of downtown York, more than 30 larger-than-life murals have completely transformed the blocks between Duke, King, Princess, and Queen Streets.

As you meander York City's main streets, you'll delight in discovering an impressive collection of outdoor sculptures. Notable installations can be found throughout the area including iconic pieces such as the "York Revolution" sculpture celebrating our beloved baseball team and "The Tinker," a unique sculpture you'll want to capture a selfie with!

Civic monuments include the Safekeepers Shrine and Court of Valor at Historic Prospect Hill Cemetery and a life-sized statue honoring William C. Goodridge at the Goodridge Freedom Center and Underground Railroad Museum.

York County also boasts a vibrant tapestry of theatre that beckons locals and visitors alike. Venues such as the Pullo Center, as well as the historic Eichelberger Performing Arts Center and Appell Center for the Performing Arts set the stage for powerful performances while their ornate architecture preserves the charm and nostalgia of a bygone era.

From local favorites to world-touring bands, you can experience a wide range of musical styles and performances at venues such as Skid Row Garage, Gift Horse Brewing Company — and just a short drive away the American Music Theatre and Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre.

If live jazz is your jam, a Friday night reservation at Victor's of York should be on your must-do list.

Mural Park

If your idea of fun is taking the path less traveled, you'll find so much to explore on your York County adventure.

From sites that take you back to the tumultuous birth of our nation to intimate performances and hidden gems that make you feel like a local, there's a whole bunch of curious finds to discover and a whole lot of fun ways to get there.

Explore York asked Kelley Gibson, President of the Cultural Alliance of York County, to name a few of her favorite York County locations where she takes visiting friends and family. Among her many suggestions, were Mural Park for an immersive self-guided exploration into art; Skid Row Garage–the region's only all-ages punk rock venue; and Ruins Hall, a one-of-a-kind immersive art experience created in the remnants of a Glen Rock furniture factory.

Bring the whole family! York County is a fun-filled and affordable road-trip destination that will have you coming back for more.

Keystone Kidspace

Brimming with delightful family-friendly activities that won't break the bank, York County promises smiles for miles.

Begin your adventure at the nature center at Richard M. Nixon County Park for an educational escape into the great outdoors. In addition to a large museum/nature center, families will enjoy a six-mile-long system of trails offering the opportunity to learn about wildlife habitats.

Be sure to bring your bikes. With more than 73 trails covering 400+ miles county wide, from paved-lot peddlers to mountain bike masters, no matter what your speed, you'll enjoy York County's Heritage Rail Trail.

York County is also a paddler's paradise. With an abundance of lakes such as Lake Redman, complete with boat rentals, and the majestic Susquehanna River, you can canoe or kayak your way to the perfect day. Rainy day? No problem! There's plenty of indoor fun to be had at places such as Keystone Kidspace for hands-on activities and interactive exhibits; Colony Park Lanes & Games, featuring glow bowling and an arcade; The Creation Station at Sunrise Soap Company for DIY soaps, salts, and scrubs; and both kids and parents will enjoy Timeline Arcade, the largest retro arcade in South-Central PA.

Thrill-seekers will find year-round fun at Roundtop Mountain Resort. With warmer weather activities such as Central PA's largest paintball operation to winter weather activities including snow tubing, boarding, and skiing — or just relaxing by the hearth in the Fireside Pub & Grill.

No trip to the area would be complete without a themed train ride on the Northern Central Railway of York. From rides with the Easter Bunny and Santa to tea parties and Cowboy Weekend, it's always a great time to visit.

Flinchbaugh's Orchard & Farm Market

When Explore York asked Julie Keene what she enjoys most about being a manager at Flinchbaugh's Orchard and Farm Market, she answered "I have a great love of farming and nature and being able to share my family's farm with other people is an absolute dream come true! I delight in hearing their laughter, seeing them come hungry for fresh fruits, and leaving with full bellies and ideas of how to use what they just picked from our orchards.

With my sons by my side, we also have fun setting up for festivals, corn mazes, and all the other special entertainment we offer throughout the year."

Julie added "When you stop into our orchard, I so hope you'll be sure to say hello to me!"

Coffee and specialty drink shops are also an integral part of York County's food scene. In fact, there's so many great options, we've started an annual week-long celebration in their honor!

For locally-roasted coffee, serving breakfast, drinks, and lunch all day — head to Joe StrEAT Cafe. The charming family-run business features creative craft beverages with a seasonal flair.

Gather 256, owned and operated by French Culinary Institute trained chef Sarah Cahill, is a neighborhood bistro and art boutique in the WeCo district of downtown York. Enjoy breakfast and lunch options along with hand-crafted beverages from their full-service espresso bar.

For a unique cafe that prioritizes gluten-free dessert recipes, try Tucker&Co. Bakery Cafe in Dillsburg. Their food is made in small batches with the freshest ingredients to pair perfectly with their delicious coffee drinks.

If you are looking for the perfect spot to refuel your day, try Prince Street Cafe — a bright and welcoming place to relax with friends and family in downtown York or head to Dover for The Hive Coffee House and Cafe.

Hanover, Pennsylvania – unofficially named "the Snack Food Capital of the World" – is often referred to as "Snack Town." While the town fondly embraces the theme, to those in the know, Hanover is so much more.

Hanover has a strong manufacturing reputation and place in American history and has evolved to meet the needs of new visitors, long-time residents, and everyone in between. This small yet vibrant town is captivatingly charming and offers plenty to do, see, and explore.

Locals and visitors alike rave about Hanover's food and beer scene. From longstanding favorites such as Warehouse Gourmet, to new and trending eats such as OAK Artisan Cookery, there is no shortage of delicious places to try. There are also many great breweries within a stone's throw of each other, including Something Wicked Brewing Co. and Aldus Brewing Co. Dolphin & Anchor Brew Pub.

There are many great places to shop in the area, including the historic Hanover Market House, a year-round farmer's market since 1815; Clarks Bostonian Shoe Outlet; and many other small, local businesses.

Hanover is also rich in history. The Hanover Area Historical Society's Carriage House Museum, with its wealth of artifacts and information, is a great place to explore.

Located a short, scenic drive from both downtown York and Gettysburg, Hanover is a must-visit destination for travelers seeking an authentic small-town Main Street Hanover experience.

Downtown York beckons travelers with its rich history, vibrant culture, and unique experiences – including a trio of unforgettable tours!

Whether you're a food enthusiast, a thrill-seeker, or an architecture aficionado, York offers a variety of newly-created walking tours that showcase its historic charm and cultural diversity.

Each tour provides a unique perspective on the city and promises a captivating and memorable journey through #historicallyedgy downtown York.

Taste2Tour with Missy Thomas: A Culinary Journey

The tour is a feast for the senses, combining historical insights with delightful food tastings. As you stroll through the city's charming streets, Thomas guides you to a curated selection of restaurants and cafes, each offering a taste of York's gastronomic heritage. Every stop on the tour is a celebration of the city's diverse culinary landscape.

What sets Taste2Tour apart (in addition to the delicious food) is the opportunity to engage with the chefs and restaurateurs who make York's restaurant scene so special. Their stories and passion for their craft add depth to the experience, making each bite a delicious journey.

Haunted Downtown York with Rissa Miller: A Supernatural Adventure

For those intrigued by the paranormal, Downtown York's Haunted tours delve into the city's eerie past. As night falls, visitors embark on a spine-tingling journey through some of York's most haunted locations.

Guided by knowledgeable storyteller Rissa Miller, you'll hear tales of ghostly apparitions, mysterious happenings, and historical figures who still linger in the shadows.

Stops include historic buildings where you can expect to hear chilling accounts of spectral sightings and unexplained phenomena that have captivated the imaginations of locals and visitors alike. The combination of York's rich history and its supernatural lore creates a uniquely thrilling experience that is both educational and exhilarating.

Whether you're a skeptic or a believer, the Haunted Downtown York Tours offer a fascinating glimpse into York's mysterious side, blending history with the thrill of the unknown.

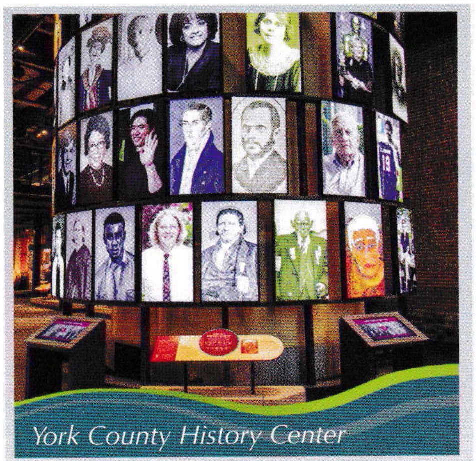
HISTORY & HERITAGE

Uncover York County's heritage and our nation's history through fascinating exhibits, museums, and tours – your history starts here.

Dills Tavern



York County History Center

Immerse yourself in captivating stories – exploring everything from colonial heritage to industrial innovation.

York County, PA, is a vibrant community dedicated to preserving our past. Whether you're a history buff or a curious and cultured traveler, we invite you to step back in time and uncover the fascinating narratives that shaped our nation.

Explore early accounts of the area's first settlers, at the Indian Steps Museum. Housing an impressive collection of artifacts, this hidden gem provides a captivating glimpse into the cultural significance of the Indigenous people who first inhabited the area.

Visit the Colonial Court House, and walk in the footsteps of our nation's early leaders. York was the birthplace of the Articles of Confederation and played a pivotal role in the founding of the United States.

Schedule a guided tour of Dills Tavern, for tales of our spirited past and the chance to taste historically crafted whiskey at Eichelberger Distillery.

Tour the William C. Goodridge Freedom Center and Underground Railroad Museum, an authenticated site recognized as part of the National Park Services' Network to Freedom.

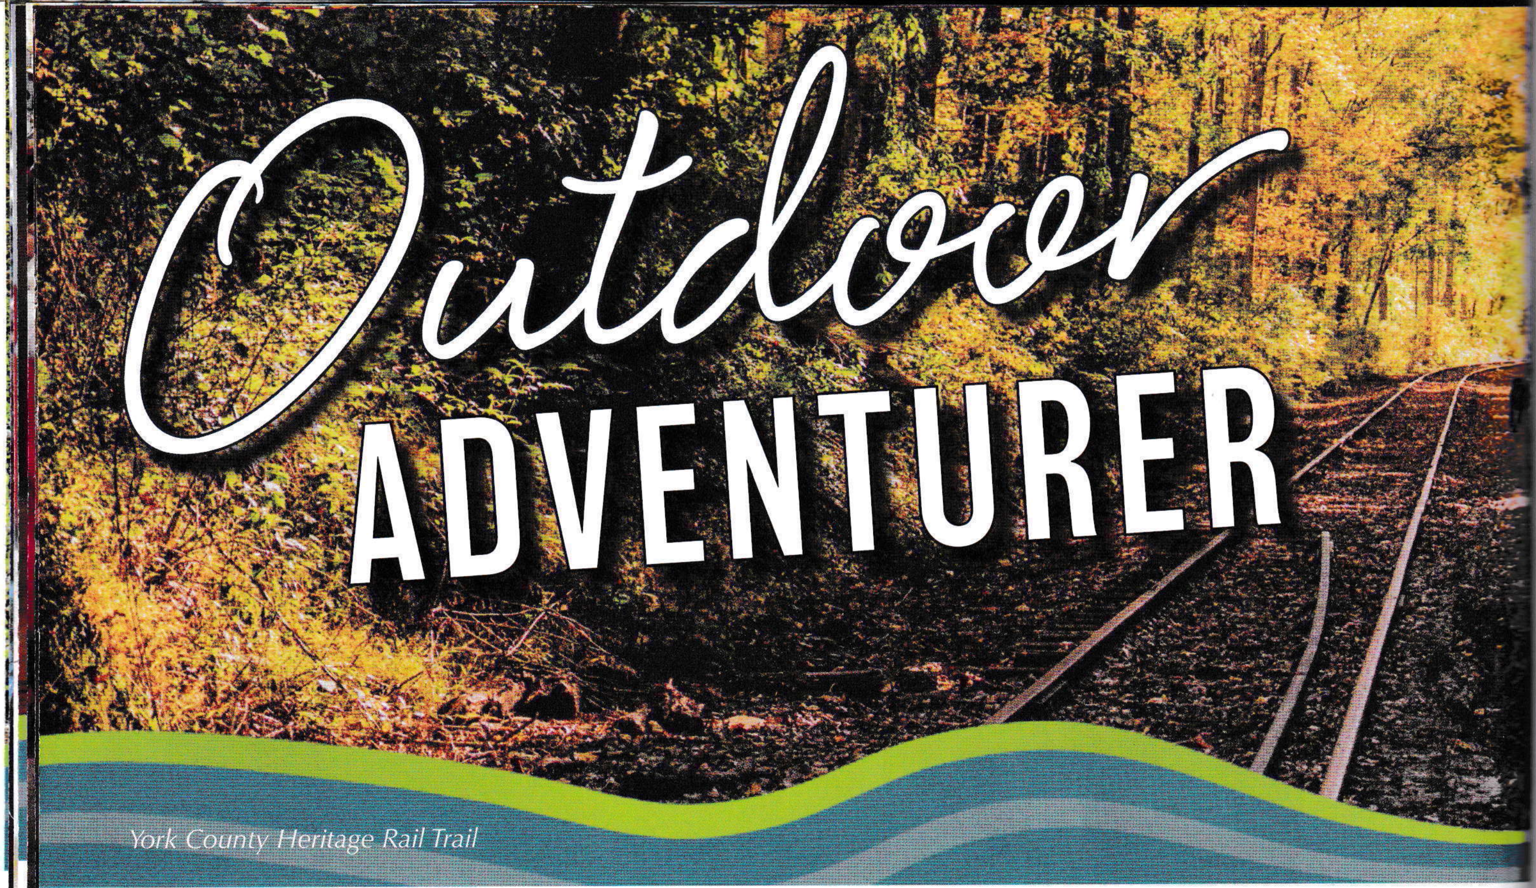
No trip to the area would be complete without a stop at the York County History Center.

A new chapter in historical exploration, the state-of-the-art facility offers an immersive experience, inviting visitors to explore York County and our nation's vibrant past.

Featuring a variety of exhibits spanning multiple eras, this multi-level complex is a great place to learn about the colonial period when York served as a meeting place for the Second Continental Congress, to the significant role the county played during the Industrial Revolution.

Engaging displays invite visitors to actively participate in their learning experience, making history accessible and fun for everyone. The center also emphasizes the importance of community engagement with exhibits designed to encourage dialogue about how historical events shaped current societal issues.

Outdoor ADVENTURER



York County Heritage Rail Trail

An outdoor adventurer's dream, York County features a wide variety of amenities, including state, county, and local parks; numerous trails; waterways and more.

Adding to the appeal are many welcoming communities and small businesses. For a sample of all there is to explore, start with this two-day itinerary curated by York County Trail Towns Program Lead David Gonzalez.

Day One | Wrightsville and Eastern York

Wrightsville is home to many small businesses ready to provide you with all the essentials you need to tackle your adventure. For baked goods, breakfast sandwiches, and a caffeinated way to start your day, stop by Wild Batch Bistro. Check the weather and grab some snacks for along the way. You're about to embark on an action-packed day! Whether you're looking to hit a trail or get prepared to paddle, Wrightsville is ready for you.

Trek the 201-mile-long Mason-Dixon Trail, enjoying scenic views of the Susquehanna River, explore Susquehanna Riverlands State Park, and while in the area, visit Pennsylvania's Official Visitor Contact and Passport Station for the Captain John Smith Chesapeake National Historic Trail located at the Zimmerman Center for Heritage, operated by Susquehanna National Heritage Area.

Spend some time on the water by booking a river discovery boat tour on the historic Chief Uncas or plan to paddle away in your own canoe or kayak. There are many boat launches providing easy access to the Susquehanna River. End your great day with a stop by River Rock Provisions, home of Half Nuts Popcorn Company.

Set yourself up for success for tomorrow's activities by staying the night in York City. Two fabulous lodging options are Grace Manor Bed & Breakfast and the Yorktowne Hotel, a part of the Tapestry Collection by Hilton — both are steps away from the Heritage Rail Trail.

4 State Parks
11 County Parks
27-Mile Heritage Rail Trail
201-Mile Mason-Dixon Trail

Day Two | Heritage Rail Trail Communities

Start your morning strong with a filling breakfast at Gather 256 in the WeCo District or grab a beverage at the Green Bean Roasting Company. Then hop on the Heritage Rail Trail. Head south for about 20 miles, where you'll reach Seven Valleys, then ride a bit more to reach Glen Rock Borough.

There's an assortment of small businesses along the way to stop for a snack or lunch, including Kindred Wellness Café, Main Street Market, or Rail Trail Shaved Ice.

The next part of your ride features the town of Railroad and New Freedom Borough where there are multiple breweries, including AleCraft Brewing and Vortex Brewing Co. — both with great lunch and dinner options, as well as outdoor dining in season. Other merchants and attractions to note are the Northern Central Railway of York, complete with a gift shop perfect for picking up souvenirs. You can also choose to split your journey between the rails and the trail with a special bike aboard excursion. Ticket options include a one-way ride from New Freedom to Hanover Junction or Brillhart Station, or a more ambitious, 16-mile uphill return trip.

When it's time to call it a day, overnight accommodations for night two of your stay include the Jackson House Bed & Breakfast, or Summit Grove Camp & Conference Center — both of which are directly adjacent to the Heritage Rail Trail for easy access.

With such a vast array of outdoor fun to be had in York County — this itinerary merely scratches the surface of our suggestions.

If you have the chance, consider extending your visit an extra day or two or plan to return again soon. Each season presents new opportunties to enjoy activities and adventures framed by the beauty of changing seasons.

To learn more about York County's Trail-Friendly communities and businesses, which include Glen Rock, Hanover, New Freedom, Railroad, Seven Valleys, Wrightsville, and the City of York, visit YorkCountyTrailTowns.com.

Sojourn Noir

Celebrating the Black Traveler Experience in York County, PA.

York County is a region rich with history, culture, and diverse communities. Amidst its scenic beauty, character, and charm, a ground breaking organization called Sojourn Noir has emerged.

Dedicated to enhancing the experience of Black travelers to the area, Sojourn Noir inspires people to engage in the inalienable right to leisure travel and to provide meaningful and enriching experiences.

Founded on the principles of inclusion and representation, they are creating a culture where Black leisure travelers feel welcome and respected, and experience a sense of belonging. A place for rest, to seek adventure, and discover historical truths. The opportunity to be immersed in the richness of arts and culture and to enjoy unencumbered retail experiences.

Sojourn Noir supports Black travelers as they go back in time. From peacemakers to trailblazers, visitors can experience a wealth of Black American history through museums, historic walking tours, a visit to the Lebanon Cemetery, and more.

Their efforts create intentional spaces and experiences where they invite you to:

Bring your adventurous self, your history and heritage seeking self, your art loving self, your contemplative self, your authentic self. Sojourn Noir invites you to...

Bring Yourself Here.

For more information, visit SojournNoir.com.

York County is alive with agritourism adventures.

With its lush landscapes and rich farming heritage, visitors have a unique opportunity to experience rural life firsthand.

Connect with nature at Castle Creek Farm. Known for its expansive lavender fields, Castle Creek is open year-round and hosts seasonal events and workshops.

Heartwood Nursery & Environmental Preserve is the largest propagator of American Holly in the United States. A plant lover's paradise, the nursery is open year-round and every season is perfect for a relaxing stroll through their stunning mature holly grove.

For those interested in sustainable agriculture and regenerative farming practices, Horn Farm Center is another must-see location. Offering a range of educational programs and hands-on activities, they are a true bio-regional hub for emergent discovery rooted in the land.

For a unique farm-to-fiber experience, visit Shear Heaven Farm. Offering alpaca walks, farm tours, and how-to craft classes — animal lovers of all ages love the farm.

The York State Fair

PENNSYLVANIA
THE GREAT AMERICAN GETAWAY

York County offers the perfect blend of history and culture, making it an ideal destination for a memorable American getaway.

Day 1: One of the best things about a getaway is the chance to sample local cuisine. York County's food scene is diverse and delicious! Start your day at The Markets at Shrewsbury, a year-round farmer's market where you'll find produce, baked goods, PA-Dutch specialties, and BBQ-lover's favorite, That Pig Place.
For a condensed yet immersive experience, spend time exploring the Civil War Trails, then continue your American journey into the past with a visit to the York County History Center for a more in-depth perspective of the county's role in shaping our nation's history.

Day 2: York County hosts a variety of events throughout the year that add excitement to any itinerary. Plan a stay around the York State Fair, America's first fair, for a week of family-friendly fun that captures the essence of American tradition. York County is also home to many outdoor music festivals where you can enjoy live performances and local food while soaking up the local atmosphere. New for 2025, live music events such as "Rock the Country," a massive two-day gathering for the true heart of America being held at the York Expo Center.

ROCK THE COUNTRY
YORK, PA
MAY 30-31
2025

Day 3: Nothing's more American than baseball and apple pie! Stop by Brown's Orchards & Farm Market for a slice of deep-dish deliciousness and to experience the agricultural roots of the region. Then catch an Atlantic League professional baseball game at WellSpan Park, home of the York Revolution. Whether you're a lifelong enthusiast or a first-time spectator, the energy of a Revolution game captures the essence of community and the joy of America's favorite pastime.
